The Gee Fam. by M. J. Flulther Washington DC 1937

p 52 William Gee³ (Charles² Charles¹) b. ca. 1727 appears on the Lunsenburg title list first in 1749 for one title. He m. Tabitha dau of John Ingram as indicated by the latter's will probated in Brunswick 1763. He was a vestryman of Cumberland Parish from 1761 to 1768. At a vestry meeting held on Nov 22, 1768 this entry was made: "Thomas Chambers, gent., is chosen as vestryman in the room of William Gee, gent., who has removed to Brunswick" (C. P. p 410). William Gee was one of the patriots from Brunswick County who rendered service during the Rev. by giving supplies, transporting the sick, provisions & guns. (Dylus Q. VII, 111) In the will of William Gee dated 11 Oct 1796 pro. Brunswick 123 Jan 1797 Testator mentions the following: son John Gee, son in law Ephraim Parham, dau Mary Collier, gr dau Tabitha Rives & Judith Rives, dau Susan Rasser, son William Gee dau Penelope Porter, dau Bridget Davis, son Joshua Ell, dau Elizabeth Harrison, son James Gee, wife Tabitha Gee, daus Nancy Gee & Patey Gee, executors sons John Gee & William Gee (Dr. B. 6 p 73). The will of Tabitha Gee was dated & pro. 1817 in which she mentions the same ch. with the omission of sons William Gee & James Gee but mentions daus Nancy Ferguson & Patey Porter who evidently had married since their father's death. It was doubtless the son William Gee who in his will pro. in Brunswick 1798 mentions wife Priscilla & bro. John Gee. The Joshua Gee listed in the 1820 census in Orange Co Va who went to Davidson Co., Tenn. where he d. 1850 age 83 was no doubt the son of William Gee. On 26 May 1820 a deed was recorded in Brunswick from Nelson Gee + wife Rebecca to John Gee conveying wife Rebecca Gee's interest in a tract of 220 acres on Meherrin River at Gee's Bridge conveyed by William Gee the elder to son James Gee "the said Rebecca being one of the five joint heirs of Parthenia Parham dec'd who was one of the ten joint heirs of the said James Gee above mentioned who is also now dec'd". Evidently this son James Gee died with out issue and it was his sister Parthenia Gee who m. on 23 Nov 1778 Ephraim Parham (son of Lewis) and had dau Rebecca⁵ Parham m. on 1st John Turbyfill and 2nd Nelson Gee on 22 Dec 1828 (Brunswick M. Reg.)
